In the year that I did Mechanical Engineering I received the Deans Commendation for both semesters. I also achieved one of the highest aggregates across the entire Engineering board. Due to this I was invited to be part of my university's student exchange program. This means that I was offered to choose from 20 universities from around the world. Proof of the above statement is available upon request. I turned the opportunity down because I had a passion for frontend development and decided to pursue it. Thereafter I studied frontend development through some of the best tech industries in the world.
